

EasTec Safety, LLC

A Safety Consulting and Training Company

Cranes & Derricks for the Competent Person Course

Course Outline

Cranes & Derricks for the Competent Person course ensures that a student will receive all of the proper training pursuant to OSHA's requirement of Competent Persons for this standard 29 CFR 1926.1400. This course will go beyond the basic awareness level of introductory courses and into details necessary when learning not just how to protect yourself, but what it takes to create a safe working environment for those you may be responsible for.

Curriculum:

- Hazard Types & Recognition
 - Qualifications
 - Crane Components & Operations
 - Construction
 - Definitions
 - Site Operations
 - Training
 - Competent Person Qualifications
 - Fall Protection
 - Crane Types & Classifications
 - Incident Command/Emergency Response
 - Rigging
 - Inspection
 - Signals
-

Certification Type:

- Cranes & Derricks for the Competent Person certification

Course Length:

- 8-hour course with hands on instruction

Instructors: Michael P. Mahoney, OHST